

We are looking to appoint some new School Governors

Hunmanby Primary School

Become a governor
...and be the voice of your community

What Governors do:

- Make decisions improving long-term direction of the school
- Check that the school is achieving their targets
- Make sure the school spends it's money wisely

What is involved:

- Attend school meetings (in the evenings)
- Occasional visits to the school during the day
- Training (provided free of charge)
- Around 10 hours a term (spread over the above activities)

What sort of people are we looking for?

- Enthusiastic and committed individuals able to lend a guiding hand in the continuous improvement of the children and the school
- Ability to work with others
